

ADRA Spain – Migrant Crisis

Person reporting: Kevin Hernandez Brito

Brief Summary	Activities over the next three months	Capacity to respond	Funding opportunities
PUBLIC AWARENESS ACTIVITIES ADRA and the Spanish SDA Unión have joint efforts to release a support request to all churches in Spain, encouraging members to support ADRA's initiatives in the response to the refugee crisis. ADRA Spain has activated all its local delegations (110) to start awareness activities within their own churches. ADRA Spain's communication department has started to release news updates on the refugee crisis and sharing all the information received from Serbia regarding ADRA's response to the crisis. COORDINATION ACTIVITIES ADRA Spain has been summoned to participate in different meetings chaired by province government to address the refugee crisis as a priority in the next few weeks and to coordinate the	ADRA will continue to make public awareness in both churches and other forums regarding the refugee crisis and the opportunities to contribute to the various programs. Fundraising mechanisms will continue to be active. Raised funds will be used to support network response activities; the funds from the first fundraising campaigns will be used to support response in Serbia. ADRA has made over 300 volunteers available at the disposal of local administrations to contribute to the implementation of local migrant/refugee attention in the different provinces.	ADRA has 110 operational delegations all over the country based in different churches from where food aid and clothing are distributed throughout the year. ADRA Spain has 3 operational migrant attention centers with capacity building programs, legal counselling and coordination with government social programs for migrant allocation and job opportunities ADRA has over 2.000 registered partners who contribute with a monthly fee to support various local social programs ADRA counts on over 300 volunteers to assist in any activity related to the current crisis.	ADRA is a member of several micro-funding platforms and has made the first call for donations for response activities in Serbia. In the following weeks, churches all over Spain will be encouraged to contribute to ADRA's network response Through our webpage, information is being released and online donation tool has been activated.

commitments from civil society organizations to the attention to refugees/migrants in their territories. CURRENT ACTIVITIES ADRA has committed their current resources (human, material) to the response plan in the different provinces.3 migrant attention centers in Madrid, Zaragoza and Vitoria for legal counselling, Spanish classes and various capacity building activities to facilitate potential employment 110 ADRA delegations throughout the territory for: food aid and clothing distribution especially during winter. FUNDRAISING ADRA is a member of several micro-funding platforms and has made the first call for donations for response activities in Serbia. In the following weeks, churches all over Spain will be encouraged to contribute to ADRA's network response.
--	--	--	--